

Chief Clinical Officer

DEFINITION

This position will guide and engage HWC's clinical staff, champion quality, foster clinical effectiveness and advance a culture of excellence. This position will also integrate and align care across HWC to help fulfill the varied requirements to wield influence throughout clinical service lines. The CCO will serve as the primary clinical voice for clinical strategy and program development decisions in support of HWCs mission, vision, values and strategic priorities.

CRITICAL FUNCTIONAL SKILLS & KNOWLEDGE

Education

BSN from a college/university accredited by the US Department of Education required
MSN from a college/university accredited by the US Department of Education preferred

Experience

Seven (7) to ten (10) years-experience in a senior clinical leadership role required
Knowledge and experience in Joint Commission Standards
Knowledge of insurance and managed care expertise

Licensure

RN

Other

Strong ability to maintain strict confidentiality and handle highly confidential information with professionalism.
Must be able to work independently as well as collaboratively within a team setting

REPORTS TO

Chief Executive Officer